EPISCOPACY IN ANNUAL SESSION

Sixth Convocation of the Missionary District of Salt Lake.

CONDITIONS ARE IMPROVING

BISHOP F. S. SPALDING MAKES THE REGULAR ADDRESS.

Episcopal missionary district of Salt Lake was begun at 1 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Mark's cathedral by the celebration of holy communion with Bishop F. S. Spalding as the celebrant, assisted by Rev. Hiram Bullis and Dean James B. Eddie. The following named delegates were present: Revs G. C. Hunting, C. E. Perkins and J. B. Eddie of Salt Lake; Hiram Bullis of Glenwood Springs; C. W. G. Lyon of Grand Junction; J. W. Gunn of Montrose, Colo.; A. Miller of Aspen. Colo.; Alfred Brown of Ogden, and P. E. Wood of Delts Colo.

F. Wood of Delta, Colo.

Rev. G. C. Hunting was elected secretary of the convention, and Rev. C.
E. Perkins treasurer. Rev. C. E. Perkins and Judge M. L. Ritchie were elected delegates to the general or triemnial convention to be held, at Richmond, Va., in 1907. The diocesan board of missions, comprised of Rev. Dr. Eddie Porkins, I. H. Woodman and L. S. Wood of Delta, Colo.

may have in store for her. It was my privilege to know Bishop Leonard, and I can therefore, in some degree, sym-pathize with you in your sense of loss for not only a leader, but also as a friend. For the splendid foundations which he laid, for the tradition of high and faithful service which he created for his own example of unselfish mis-sionary spirit, let us thank God and pledge ourselves to carry forward the work for which he lived and in the midst of which he died.

LIGHT BREAD NO VIRTUE WHEN IT AFFECTS WEIGHT, SAY GROCERS STATE NEWS

Cook books and amateur benedicts have in the past extolled the medit and virtue of light bread. Even virtue in this respect, however, ceases to be a virtue when it affects the pound weight of bread dealt over the grocer's counter. The wholesale dough wielders, say the grocers, are going too far when they not only reduce the weight of bread but at the same time raise the price, Accordingly the Salt Lake Retail Grocers's & Butchers' association has taken the matter up.

At last night's meeting Frederick Weigh said that in nearly every in-

NEW LIGHT AND POWER ORDINANCE HELD BACK BY ITS FRIENDS

The members of the joint municipal laws and special water committee have not been called to consider again the ordinance granting the Utah Light & Railway company an extension of its franchises until Jan. I, 1935. It was expected that Chairman Fernstrom would send out yesterday a call for a meeting of the joint committee, to be held this afternoon or evening, but he did not do so.

Just when the ordinance will go before the council cannot now be stated. As the mayor and eleven of the councilmen meet this evening in their various committees they will doubtless may out a programme in regard to the franchise extension ordinance and other matters.

of missions, comprised of Rev. Dr. Eddie, Perkins, J. H. Woodman and L. S. Besley, was re-elected. The address of the convention was made by Bishop Spalding. Among other things he said: "There must be a feeling of sadness in many hearts as we meet today for prayer and counsel. It is indeed sad that new relationships are entered into only at the cost of old and dear associations. The district of Salt Lake has paid dearly for whatever the future may have in store for her. It was my privilege to know Bishop Leonard, and institution, and to the fact that St. Mark's hospital has a record unsurpassed by the church hospitals of the United States. However, he said, the hospital is in great need of funds in order that its work may be prosecuted with the same degree of efficiency as it has been in the past. The speaker said he hoped to be able at the next convention to announce something definite concerning the erection of the Nurse's Home as a testimonial to the memory of Bishop Leonard.

Bishop Spalding reported favorable conditions throughout the state in the matter of church work, as also through those sections of Idaho, Nevada and Colorado within the district.

"It is a mistaken idea," said the bishop, "that the only requirement for a successful western missionary is that he be a hearty sort of man, a great hustler, a good mixer and other phrases which have been invented recently to describe not the clergyman who thinks that he is."

At the evening service Rev. P. F. Wood and Rev. A. Miller led in prayer. The convention will be resumed at 10 o'clock this morining and will close this evening.

PRESIDENT WILL HAVE

"I. An association should be formed embracing all irrigators who take water from Spanish Fork, and Payson, Spring and Santaquin creeks.

"2 Every sigher of the articles of incorporation should pledge his entife irrigable area, and should surrender to the association all his water rights, taking in lieu thereof perfected rights to water from Spanish Fork, Strawberry valley or other sources. The terms of such surrender should be determined by the association.

"3. The association should acquire existing ditches so far as they may be necessary to the enlarged project, and the right of way for any new ditches necessary.

"If the committee indicates its intention of following promptly and vigorously along these lines, the reclamation service will push investigations as rayidly as conditions will permit, and make an estimate on cost and results, with a view to recommending early construction, if all conditions of feasibility be fulfilled."

Mr. Whittlesey's support was again all that could be desired. Mr. Williams, in the difficult role of Colonel Anstruthers, which he has assumed since the company left here before, was perhaps a trifle less smooth than Mr. Sainpoolis, but was effective. Reginald Mason was again splendid as Hildebrand Castairs, and with Miss Perry as Lady Harburg and Miss Brissac as Nora Vining, succeeded in keeping the audience from being too greatly depressed as the hard luck piled up on the unhappy Kit.

Tickets for the series of lecture recitals by Reuben Goldmark were placed on sale in the music stores yesterday and the demand indicates a generous patronage. Mr. Goldmark gives five lectures. On next Tuesday, Thursday, Priday and Saturday nights he will take up Wagnerian opera, and on Sunday night "The National Element in Music." What promises to be an unusual and enjoyable musical feature will form part of the Sunday night programme, when Miss Agatha Berkhoel of Salt Lake City will sing about fifteen little folk songs in the various languages. Mr. Goldmark will lecture in Unity hall under the direction of the Unity club. He made an excellent impression on the occasion of his visit here last year.

The Mack Swain Theatre company will present at the Grand "Down by the Old Mill" twice today. The matinee will begin at 3 o'clock.
